

Zurich Delivers when It Matters

Zurich delivers when it matters. We believe in continuously delivering risk insights and enhancing our products and services to anticipate and answer to the evolving needs of our customers and their exposures. We have served our customers with consistency and reliability across dramatically changing market conditions, weathering good times and bad and building a global presence that now delivers one of the industry's broadest portfolios of products and services.

With 27 quarters of consecutive profitability¹, Zurich in North America has the strength and confidence to look ahead to new growth opportunities, tempered by the understanding that we earn market leadership one customer at a time.
